Orchard's Associates Told That Punishment Will Follow Crime.

Judge, in Sentencing Arch-Criminal, Says He Believes Him.

Recommendation of Death Sentence by Pardon Board.

BOISE (Idaho) March 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That Harry Orchard must be saved to testify against those who he says, were associated with him in crime, was one of the reasons given today by Judge Wood in recommending that the State Board of Pardon commute the death sentence be imposed.

Reviewing the labor troubles, which the judge said were back of Orchard's crimes, special emphasis was laid on the Cour d'Alene riots of 1904 when Stuenkel was Governor of Idaho. The court plainly intimated that he thought the crime of the labor war was as great as that of Orchard's.

Judge Wood stated plainly that he believed Orchard had told the truth and that the acquittal of Haywood was due to the provision of the law which calls for corroboration of the testimony given by an accomplice.

After reviewing the crimes of Orchard and saying he believed they were done for intimidation purposes, Judge Wood said:

"I want to take opportunity of this session to say to the audience, that the defendant that they cannot be sure of the truth of the testimony given by an accomplice."

Judges and executives may be placed out of the way by assassins, but there will be others to take their place, just as ready and just as determined to perform their duties as their predecessors were and backed by a public opinion that will ferret out and discover the author of every such crime and bring him back to punishment."

ORCHARD MADE HAPPY.
Orchard, asked tonight if he expected Judge Wood's action in recommending him to a pardon, said:

"I never was more surprised in my life. It was wholly unexpected. I am happy at the declaration of Judge Wood that he believed the evidence I gave under oath. It makes me happier than if he had set me free."

"I have never wanted to see the man against whom I testified punished, but I have been convinced everything would come out for the best."

Asked about the spirit of his confession, Orchard said:

"McParland was merely the instrument of the law. I probably confessed a little sooner to him, knowing his record as a criminal detective, but I know in my own heart that I would have made a full and free confession sooner or later and if it had not been for a higher power, that I have been convinced everything would come out for the best."

EXPLAINS HIS CAREER.
"My first crime was an entanglement with another woman than my wife. The other crimes were a result of that first crime and for the purpose of carrying it out. Then I resolved to reform and live without crime. I did until I went to Cripple Creek. I did not realize that what I did were crimes. I was but one of many in most of them, and that I personally was responsible I did not think of. The early crimes were merely for the purpose of destroying property and I never believed them wrong. Money was not intended to take lives, but when lives were lost, it became easier to do others."

"I always intended each crime should be my last, but something else came up which made it easy to reform and live without crime. I never got much money. Money was not what I wanted, for if it had been I would have made much more. I never was brought to a full realization of the great wickedness of my actions till my arrest for this last crime."

COURT BELIEVES ORCHARD.
Stating that he believes Harry Orchard in his testimony in the trials of William D. Haywood and George A. Pettibone for the murder of ex-Gov. Frank Steiengberg, told the court, Judge Wood said that he believed Orchard's testimony and that the State Board of Pardon commutes Orchard's sentence of death to imprisonment in the State Penitentiary. The sentence of death was pronounced by the jury.

INVESTIGATION.

SUSPECT JACKSON.

To Investigate New York Official.

Legislator Is After Independence League Attorney-General.

Receiverships of Banks and Trust Companies Cause Inquiry.

Accused of Appointment of Political Adherents to Fat Jobs.

ALBANY (N. Y.) March 18.—In the Legislature today Senator Martin Sage of New York introduced a concurrent resolution providing for an executive investigation of the conduct of the office of the Attorney-General of the State during the administration of the incumbent, William Schuyler Jackson of Buffalo, especially with reference to receiverships of banks and trust companies.

Mr. Jackson was elected on the Democratic-Independence League ticket in November, 1906, and has been in office since January 1, 1907.

The general impression about the Capitol tonight is that the resolution of investigation will be adopted and the investigation instituted.

The essential paragraph of the resolution states that during the recent past a large number of receiverships in New York were instituted to suspend and that it has been widely charged that the office of the Attorney-General has been used by Mr. Jackson as a means of appointing political adherents to fat jobs.

Senator Sage said today that he introduced the resolution at the request of certain bankers in New York City whom he said he might have heard, but that it represented his own views.

GRAND JURY WENT.
NEW YORK, March 18.—Attorney-General Jackson said tonight that he would welcome an investigation of his official conduct in an impartial manner without personal feeling or any consideration of politics.

The Attorney-General said: "If one bank closed which did not do so of its own accord. Where I thought the banks were able to do I have assisted them. Every act of mine has been directly or indirectly in the interests of the depositors and directed toward preventing the closing of the institutions. That can be easily demonstrated by legislative inquiry."

Frank White, formerly first deputy Attorney-General under Attorney-General Jackson, and appointed by the latter as temporary receiver for the Home Bank, October 22 last, and Joseph Ford, formerly private secretary to Mr. Jackson and later receiver for the Mechanics and Traders' Bank, were before the grand jury today. Both were questioned by the District Attorney. As to what questions were put to the two men, Mr. Jerome M. White and Mr. Ford were equally reticent.

RESTS WITH MISS ELKINS.
Elder Sister Says She Would not Be Surprised If Duke of Abruzzi Were Refused.

PHILADELPHIA, March 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. William C. Wiedemann of this city, an elder sister of Miss Katharine Elkins, confirmed today the report from Washington that a formal announcement of Miss Elkins' engagement to the Duke of Abruzzi rests with the young lady herself. She said:

"My sister is a very determined young woman, fully capable of managing her own affairs, and she will make her decision herself, without consultation with any of her relatives. She has taken no one into her confidence and has not given the slightest hint of her intentions. I, for one, should not be surprised if she refused the Duke. Nor should I be greatly amazed if she accepted him."

KING OPPOSES MATCH.
ROME, March 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Curious opposition in the highest official circles of Italy has developed to the marriage of the Duke of Abruzzi to Miss Katharine Elkins. When inquiry was made today at the ministry of Marine as to whether or not the Duke was at St. Augustine, Fla., it was stated that the report was absolutely untrue. It was believed that he was on board the battleship Recluse, Elena at Spezia.

A telegram was immediately sent to that point and this reply was received: "Abruzzi left here three weeks ago, address unknown. Believed that he took an American steamer."

It is well known in court circles that the King is bitterly opposed to the wedding and insists upon the renunciation by the Duke of all claims to the throne in the event of his marriage. Roman society insists that the Duke will win in his marital attempt, that Miss Elkins is quite as good as a descendant of a shepherd that the King married from a semi-civilized party will be taken around the city in automobiles, placed at the service of the chamber by members.

Admiral Sereb and thirty-five or forty officers of his fleet will be entertained Friday on a trolley trip to Glendora and Pasadena. At the latter place the reception will be of a military and naval character.

Visitors were received aboard the armored cruisers California and Tennessee this afternoon, and launches were kept busy carrying passengers out to the aquadron at anchor behind the breakwater. The crew of the Washington was busy coaling that vessel. Tomorrow the Tennessee will coal and after she has been cleaned all three of the warships will be open to the inspection of the public.

On Friday Capt. Howard and Lieut. Workman of the Tennessee and Lieut. Timmons of the California, who have been appointed a board of examiners to look over the proposed rifle range here, will be conducted over the grounds by Capt. Amos A. Price, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A. Following the inspection a report will be submitted to Washington.

Flag Lieut. Bloch announced this morning that the expected boat races in the outer harbor between crews of the three warships had been called off. The only day available is Saturday, and as this is a weekly holiday for the men of the fleet, Admiral Sereb was averse to having the men do anything except of their own free inclinations.

Although several hundred men are given shore leave each day there has been no case of unruly conduct and no semblance of any trouble. After their shore leave expires the men return to their ships sober and orderly. Baseball lines of the cruisers California and Tennessee tried conclusions on the Point Fermin diamond this afternoon. The game was witnessed by a goodly number of men from the fleet. The California nine won by a score of 5 to 2.

BOMB THROWER CAUGHT.
CHICAGO, March 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Suspected of having sought the life of the czar by throwing a bomb at the Tsarokos Solo Palace in St. Petersburg more than a month ago, Ankoline Zilens, late of Kishinev, was taken into custody today by the Chicago police. The Russian secret police claim to have traced him to Chicago.

WOMEN MUST WEAR HAT TWO FEET HIGH.

CHICAGO, March 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The new "campaign hat," which Dame Fashion has decreed for women, is black, two feet high, composed of fine lace, and has an English cockade as its chief distinguishing feature. It is the last expression of the art of millinery. In short, it is "it" on which you gaze.

This, at any rate, is what was declared today by milliners from all parts of the United States, who had come here for the eighth annual convention of the National Milliners' Association, which will open its session tomorrow morning.

The milliners were a unit in declaring that the campaign hat is the masterpiece of the present season.

"A woman who does not possess a campaign hat," said they, "is absolutely not in fashion. Any woman who aspires to be well dressed—and what woman does not?—must possess in her wardrobe at least one campaign hat. It is true that campaign hats cost anywhere from $40 to $100 apiece, but it always has cost money to be in the fashion, and the spring of 1908 is no exception to that truism. Presidential campaigns come high, so do the hats, and it is to be presumed that it is from this fact they derive their name. At any rate, there they are, and all the public has to do is to buy and wear them."

The technical description of the campaign hat shows that it is built much along the lines of the silk hats of our ancestors. It has a narrow brim and goes straight up to its altitude of two feet, its main decoration being the English cockade.

Declarer That There Are Only Twelve Drugs in the Pharmacopoeia Which Will Even as Much as Aid Cures—Tells of Cases Where Physicians Gave Bread Pills.

NEW YORK, March 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Declaring that he had given up the practice of medicine because science was rapidly becoming obsolete, that mental suggestion was the most effective cure for bodily ailments, and that but twelve drugs in the pharmacopoeia were even as much as aid cures, Dr. Frederick van Eeden of Holland, widely known as a psychologist, expounded the virtues of psycho-suggestion before a large audience of men and women at the Hudson theater today.

"I gave up the practice of medicine long ago for the more effective treatment of mental suggestion," said the doctor. "Many doctors who are practicing medicine today rely more on mental suggestion than they do on drugs, but they do not like to admit it."

"When doctors of medicine cannot diagnose a case or do not know what to do for a patient, they give him bread pills, with careful instructions as to how many to take. Usually they tell him that they have given him very powerful drugs. This is an admission that in extreme cases even physicians advocate mental healing."

"A famous London physician told me last when he felt ill he used to take a rhubarb pill and put them on a table by his side when he went to bed. He said the effect was just as good as though he had taken them."

"This is but an example of what suggestion will do for the body. The question is whether the cure is to be made by the patient or by the doctor. Imagination seems the most powerful."

"It is almost criminal to say that a person looks ill in that person's hearing, as a suggestion of sickness may materialize into actual illness. Patient imagine a headache, will get a headache. Imagination seems the most powerful."

SETTLE DOWN TO SIEGE.
DENVER, March 18.—Telegraphic reports from all points on the Rio Grande system to the leaders of the sheepmen's strike indicate that all who first refused to obey the strike order have since gone out. The men at Pueblo went out last night as did the men remaining at other points. Both sides have settled down to a siege.

"RAWHIDE" GOLD MINING STOCK.

Par Value $1.00 a Share.

PRICE ADVANCES TO 10c A SHARE NEXT SATURDAY, MARCH 21st.

The Rawhide Operating Syndicate owns three valuable leases in the great Rawhide Gold Mining District. These consist of Lease No. 1, Lease No. 2, and Lease No. 4 in the "OWL" CLAIM NUMBER ONE.

Rawhide has been rightly termed the "Leaser's Camp." Old mining men—men who know the game from A to Z—are putting every dollar they can rake and scrape into Rawhide Leases. They know what to expect. They know that Rawhide is going to be the greatest Gold Mining Camp in Nevada, if not in the entire world. Only a limited block of stock is being offered at the ground floor price.

The names of the men who are behind the Rawhide Operating Syndicate insure a square deal to every investor. The directorate is composed of E. D. Crowley, general manager R. & W. Construction Co.; M. A. Collins, mining operator, formerly associated with G. R. Doubleday; J. G. Moynihan, formerly of the Germania National Bank; E. A. Leavitt, formerly western manager for the Denver Daily Mining Record; D. E. McInnes, mining expert. We have received advices from the Rawhide Operating Syndicate, whose main offices are in San Francisco, that the original allotment of 100,000 shares—out of the 1,000,000 shares of treasury stock—is nearly exhausted. They have also wired us that the stock will positively advance to 10 cents a share on Saturday, March 21st.

THE FOLLOWING TELEGRAMS ARE SELF-EXPLANATORY. Read the Following Telegrams.

San Francisco, Cal., March 14, 1908. KEystone INVESTMENT CO. 510 I. W. Hellman Bldg., Los Angeles, Cal. Price of stock advances to 10 cents on or before Saturday, March 21st. Mr. Lynch, mining engineer, and Mr. Leavitt, president, leave Monday to conclude pending negotiations for other properties.

If You Want Any Rawhide Operating Syndicate Stock at 5c You Must Act Quickly.

You may never have another such opportunity for profitable investment as is offered in Rawhide Operating Syndicate stock at 5 cents a share. Only a limited block is to be sold at this price, in order to push the work on the company's present holdings, and to acquire new claims.

The price positively advances to 10 cents a share next Saturday night, March 21st. If you want any "Rawhide" at 5 cents—and you will never make another buy like it—you will have to hurry. The original allotment may be exhausted before Saturday. Better act today.

Office open Saturday night until 10 o'clock for the convenience of those who find it impossible to get here during the day.

Plucky Cavalier.

A frightened horse, drawing a laundry wagon, tore down First-street hill from Frank's corner to Main street last night, narrowly missing several street cars and sending people scurrying to doorways for safety. Only the pluck of Constable Wong, who succeeded in holding to the reins, averted serious results.

Demented Man Injured.

Craved by the belief that members of the "Black Hand" are seeking his life, Valerio Matia, who lived on the third floor of a rooming-house at Buena Vista and Temple streets, leaped from the window, early yesterday morning. When the guards at the County Jail, across the street, heard his screams, they ran to him, drawing their guns in anticipation of trouble. At the receiving Hospital the surgeons found that he had sustained a compound fracture of the right hip.

BANQUET TO TRAVELERS.

World-Girders to Be Entertained by Young Men's Christian Association Next Week.

The Young Men's Christian Association will give a large banquet at the Hotel Westminster on Tuesday evening, March 24, tendered to the business men of the city to meet John R. Mott of New York and Fletcher S. Brockman of Shanghai, China.

Both guests of honor are men well versed in international affairs. Mr. Mott having made a number of trips around the world in connection with the Student Christian Federation, while Mr. Brockman has been ten years secretary of the foreign department in China.

Mr. Mott has been active in the Young Men's Christian Association for the last fifteen years, and during the eleven years that he has been leader of the Student Federation it has grown from 22,000 members to 112,000, and his work has placed him in touch with people of almost every nation. He is pronounced a statesman with a world-embracing knowledge of events, and he is sought after in every direction. As an after-dinner talker he has few superiors.

Mr. Brockman is likewise a splendid talker, and he has gained a vast fund of information on the characteristics and aspirations of the Chinese. He is a Virginian by birth and has been in China since 1898 as general secretary, during which time the Chinese associations have developed marvelously. He is in high favor and in close touch with the Chinese authorities. The plates at the banquet on next Tuesday evening will be limited to 200, and all reservations must be in not later than Monday evening.

THE ART OF DRESSING

IT IS REALLY an easy matter to be well dressed, if you care to be. Opinions may differ as to what "well-dressed" really is; but the main requirements are in every case about the same: Correct style, perfect fit, good tailoring, honest quality. They all count, and you want them all.

We are style creators. We know what's correct, and we demonstrate it in our garments. "You don't have to order at Nicoll's if you don't want to; but you have to follow Nicoll's styles if you want to be correct."
